Description

This is a mirror in the form of a disk with a rim and a side handle decorated with a figure of a panther. The figure rests on a stand with four ribs. This find comes from one of the mounds near the city of Romny, Sumy region, which were excavated by Serhii Mazaraki at the end of the 19th century. Such mirrors are classics of Scythian antiquities and relics/artifacts of the Scythian cultural circle of the 6th century BCE.
